

Occupational Safety and Health

Objective: This session provides and overviews of the duties of Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Specialist to include tools which can be utilized to prevent mishaps in all occupational specialties.

1. Introduction
 2. Duties of an OSH Specialist
 3. Demographics (Education, Average Years of Experience, Age)
 4. Industry groups where OSH Specialists are commonly found
 5. Income
 6. Current Job Openings (Monster.com, Careerbuilder.Com)
 7. Safety Exercise 1: Have student conduct a Job Safety Analysis (JSA) to determine safe ways to conduct tasks.
 - a. Note: Encourage students to create a JSA covering a task that they commonly undertake in their training courses.
 - b. Outcome: Students should end up with set of steps on how to safely conduct tasks.
- Safety Exercise 2: Utilizing a Risk Assessment Code Matrix, give students a hazardous scenario and have them to determine mishap probability and severity.
8. Review and Questions
 9. Conclusion